Musgrave wins business award

Rep. Marilyn Musgrave was named the 2004 Small Business Advocate by the Small Business Survival Committee, a Washington-based nonprofit organization.

The award is given to individuals who "demonstrate a commitment to America's small business and entrepreneurial sector," according to a press release from Musgrave's office.

The nonprofit rates lawmakers by their voting actions on tax relief, business investment incentives and health insurance affordability legislation.

Musgrave's family owns and operates a small hay-baling business in their hometown of Fort Morgan. The Republican Congresswoman, whose 4th Congressional District includes Fort Collins, is a member of the House Committee on Small Business.
